Beyond March 2011

The INTERNATIONAL CIVIL AVIATION ENGLISH ASSOCIATION (ICAEA) is holding its 10th Aviation English forum on the implementation of ICAO Language Proficiency Requirements in training and testing in Kuala Lumpur on 23rd and 24th November 2010. The forum is being hosted by GULF GOLDEN INTERNATIONAL COLLEGE OF AVIATION (GGIFA).

The forum will focus on the theme of sustaining ICAO language proficiency implementation beyond March 2011 from the operational and language training and testing points of view. It is a unique opportunity for the exchange of expertise and information between operational, regulatory, language training and testing specialists in the region of the world where aviation is growing the fastest. The forum will be an opportunity to take stock of what has been achieved and produced to date, but also to look forward at the challenges of the future.

Key note speakers from ICAO, the Malaysian Ministry of Transport, the ICAO PRICE study group, airlines, air navigation service providers, academic research and language training and testing experts will be addressing delegates on:

- An update on ICAO Language Proficiency Requirement implementation
- ICAO Circular 318: Language Testing Criteria for Global Harmonization
- ICAO Circular 323: Guidelines for Aviation English Training Programmes
- ICAEA / ICAO Rated Speech Sample training aid project
- The recently announced ICAO test endorsement process
- Applying the ICAO Rating Scale from an operational standpoint
- Strategies for maintaining language proficiency and the role of recurrent training
- Good practice and sustainability in licensing testing

There will also be breakout sessions to facilitate exchange and feedback. An exhibition area will enable language training and testing providers to show their products and services.

To register, please use the links from either the GGIFA (<http://www.ggifa.edu.my>) or ICAEA (www.icaea.pansa.pl) websites.
